

Replacing Laptops in the Trolley

When putting the laptops back in the trolley, please make sure the spine of the laptop is at the bottom and the power input is facing outward, as shown in the picture above.

When transporting the laptops both the green bars, either side of the trolley should be in place and locked.

At the end of the day each individual laptop should be plugged in with the supplied charging cable. The whole laptop trolley is then plugged into the wall socket.